A photograph showing a group of King penguins standing on a rocky shoreline. They are facing towards the left of the frame, where the ocean waves are crashing onto the rocks. The penguins are dark with bright yellow patches around their eyes and on their heads. The background shows more of the rocky beach and the vast ocean.

The image is a collage consisting of three parts. The top-left part shows a group of penguins standing on a rocky, light-colored ground. The bottom-left part shows a close-up of a seal's head, with its mouth slightly open, resting on a similar rocky surface. The right side of the image contains two columns of text in Latin, which is a common placeholder text used in design. The text is repeated in both columns.

The screenshot shows the DHL website homepage. The top navigation bar includes links for Paket, Express, Logistics, Careers, and About us. A large yellow banner features two women wearing sunglasses and gold chains, with the text "THINK YOU CAN SPEND LESS?". Below the banner is a "DHL postage calculator" section with tabs for "Parcel-Shipment" and "Express-Shipment". It includes fields for Country (Germany), Weight (up to 2 kg), and Size (up to 60 x 30 x 15 cm). There is also a checkbox for "Including liability and Track & Trace". To the right, there's a "Business Divisions" section for "DHL Paket" and "DHL Express", each with a small image of a delivery truck.
